

Please be careful of e-mails that misrepresent Kyowa Kirin

As we are seeing an increase in suspicious on-line activity including scammers sending messages that look like legitimate business queries, please remain vigilant in all on-line communications. At Kyowa Kirin, we will not send text or email messages asking you to share personal details or security information. All messages from Kyowa Kirin will come from @kyowakirin.com, so please pay attention to any variations that may try to appear legitimate. If you do receive a communication that looks suspicious, please forward the message to us to confirm if the request is from our company.
